DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-4, drawn to a repair device, classified in class 428, subclass 40.1.
 - II. Claims 5-7, drawn to a method of re-adhering wall-paper, classified in class 156, subclass 71.
 - III. Claims 8-10, drawn to a method of installing a door hinge, classified in class 52, subclass 741.1.
 - IV. Claims 11-13, drawn to a method of installing a repair patch onto a wall, classified in class 156, subclass 94.
 - V. Claims 14-16, drawn to a method of making the device, classified in class 427, subclass 207.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions Group V and Group I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product can be made by a materially different process such as extruding the adhesive in a pattern onto the carrier.

Art Unit: 1772

3. Inventions Group I and Group II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product can be used in a materially different process such as installing a door hinge.

4. Inventions Group I and Group III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product can be used in a materially different process such as placing a repair patch onto a wall.

5. Inventions Group I and Group IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product can be made in a materially different process such installing a door hinge.

6. Inventions Groups II, III and IV are directed to distinct and different processes of use. Each of the Groups are capable of supporting independent inventions because the Groups are directed to divergent subject matter.

Art Unit: 1772

7. Similarly, Invention Groups V and (II, III and IV) are distinct and different. The Groups are capable of supporting independent inventions.

8. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

9. A telephone call was made to Paul Cranne on September 26, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

10. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
